HOMECOMING PLANS UNDERWAY

Under the able leadership of Larry Lindberg, Frank Wessel and the cheerleaders, a pep-rally for the Central vs. Eastern football game got well under way. The cheerleaders formed a pick-up pep rally Friday evening at 6:45.

Starting at Kamola Hall the cheerleaders led yells and then moved on to the next hall.

YELL LEADERS ARE ELECTED

In the election assembly sponsored by the SGA Thursday, five freshman yell leaders were selected by the student body.

Those elected were Larry Lindberg, Bud MacDonald, Allan Green, Nadine and Corinne Powell. The three men are to decide which cheer leader is to act as yell-king. Frank Wessel and Pat Patillo were elected as subs for the leaders.

Outside pep assemblies will be held throughout the year. The indoor assemblies will have pep skits and stuff like that there. The cheerleaders are encouraged by the response they received last Friday at the football game and plan to work hard to give as much pep and enthusiasm to their yells as possible.

During homecoming, there will be a big organized pep rally for all students.

This year plans are being made to combine the two organized pep clubs. They will take care of all pep posters and will wrap the goal posts.

Busses will be taken to games.

Apple Labels Take Priority Over Hyakems

After several promises to print the Hyakem by a definite time, the printers have recently promised to deliver the yearbooks by October 25, Mr. Glen Hogue, faculty advisor for the Hyakem, announced.

"Our contract with an out of town firm made it possible for them to set aside our yearbook for more lucrative contracts in the event of failure of the Hyakem staff to live up to a set schedule. This type of contract has been used in the past, but this is the first time it has proved unsatisfactory," said Mr. Hogue.

The 1948 yearbook will be printed by the Record Press which has a record of fifteen Hyakems without a late edition.

ARTIST SPEAKS TO CLASS

Ray Dolquist, commercial artist and lithographer from Seattle, spoke to Miss Spurgeon's 2nd period drawing class on Wednesday. His talk was on lithography.

MOBILE X-RAY UNIT HERE

A free mobile X-ray unit will arrive on the campus Oct. 8 and will remain Oct. 8 and 9 all day.

This unit is sponsored by the State Dept. of Health, and has visited many universities and colleges. To have a chest X-rayed constitutes an obligation, as T. B. is a menace to all people. Appointments may be made at the Infirmary at any time.

DR. NO-YONG SPEAKS ON CHINA'S CONFLICT

Speaking on "America's Role in Tomorrow's China," Dr. No-Yong Park, lecturer on Far Eastern affairs at Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, spoke before the assembly at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

In his lecture, Dr. No-Yong discussed the conflict in China between the Communists and the Nationalists and the chances for an agreement between the two.

Dr. No-Yong received his European education in China and Japan. He acquired his western training in Europe and America, especially at Harvard, where he received the degrees of M. A. and Ph. D. He distinguished himself in college by capturing many oratorical and literary prizes in competition with American students in their own languages.

Far-Eastern problems have been his life study and he has visited the Orient frequently to gain first hand information. He lectured for the University of Minnesota for more than a decade, and the Institutes of International Understanding sponsored by Rotary International for the past eight consecutive seasons.

DON WADE ELECTED EDITOR OF HYAKEM

Donald E. Wade, junior, from Thorp, was elected to be editor of the Hyakem for the 1947-48 edition, by the SGA council.

Mr. Glenn Hogue, Hyakem advisor, recommended Wade because of his special interest and abilities. His major in commercial art, and his ability in designing and layout will be a valuable asset to the yearbook.

OAKLAND ELECTED MAYOR OF VETVILLE

The student vets from the college housing project met in Room A209 Thursday evening to elect officers and discuss the business of the project.

E. J. Oakland was elected president for the 1947-48 term. Other officers included: Jack Shore, secretary and treasurer; Dave Hartl and Mrs. Fred Schurr, social commissioners.

The social commissioners announce that they plan to have a dance in October, and plan to have other social programs going soon.

Discussion of the possibilities of a cooperative grocery store were discussed. A committee of four was designated to find all the details on the matter.

Volunteers were selected to begin work on the playground to be erected in the project. Work is to be begun Saturday. All veterans not contacted are urged to turn out and help.

Chinn Elected Soph President

The sophomore class held its annual election of officers Tuesday, Sept. 30.

Wilbur Chinn from Seattle was elected president. Chinn lives in Munson Hall.

Other officers elected include: Evelyn Offield, vice president; Mary Horton, secretary; Mary Nelson, and Claude Fredericks, social commissioners.

The sophomore social commissioners are busy planning the decorations for their homecoming float and activities.

Highlighting this year's social calendar is the Cupids Informal, sponsored by the sophomores on Valentines day.

Drum Majorettes Show at Half

During the half of the football game between Central and Bellingham, the drum majorettes showed their talent in the center of the rodeo field.

Alice Carlson, Faye Sethe and Joyce Wood twirled their batons and marched to the accompaniment of the band.

Enrollment Hits Highest Mark In CWCE History

Anticipating the enrollment to reach 1200 students before the quarter ends, the list of students attending Central Washington College tallies 1118 at this time.

In comparison with last year, there are 30 less freshmen, but the total enrollment is greater. The frosh veterans are 40 per cent less than last year's, the non-veterans are 35 per cent more, and the total enrollment is 22 per cent higher than the high set last term.

This year finds 39 per cent of the total enrollment as veterans. Men outnumber the women 673 to 445, and upperclassmen are more numerous than freshmen 585 to 533. New transfers from other colleges, universities, and junior colleges mount to 84.

Of the enrollment, more than 750 students are living on the campus. The remainder live at home or in private homes in Ellensburg.

Most classes offered at Central Washington College have been limited to 35 or 40 students, although two business administration courses remain oversized and the band is in need of additional members.

Associate Professor Alva E. Treadwell has the largest classes, with 80 or more students in both his business arithmetic and business law classes. Coaches Shelley Kem and Monte Reynolds have 102 boys turning out for football, with 51 of these members of the freshman class.

Although most freshman and sophomore classes are filled, several courses are in need of interested students. The band needs woodwind players desperately.

Adjustments have been made regarding rooms for classes, time of classes and the distribution in the classes by Mr. E. B. Rogel, registrar.

Bill Shelton Frosh Prexy

By electing Bill Shelton, Jim Smith, Donna Masters and Edith Sandberg as their student leaders for 1947-48, the freshman class began a promising year Tuesday, September 30.

Bill Shelton, from Elma, won the presidency of the greenhorns by a narrow margin over Jim Smith, Glen Emmerton, Allen Green, and Frank Roberts were also nominated for the office.

Not to be outdone, Jim Smith, Hoquiam, was elected vice-president in a competition with Steve Smith, Wanda Riddle, and Gerry Hauser.

Donna Masters, Port Angeles, will fill the office of secretary. Other promising scribes voted on were Georgie McCoy, Mary Fox, Dorothy Rutledge, Pat Green, Gloria Woodbury, and Cora McEwen.

Edith Sandberg, also of Hoquiam, will be in charge of the money bags. Those running in opposition with her were Velita Hargraves, Donna Guffin, Jean Wright, and Marjorie Andrus.

HOWELL ANNOUNCES ALL COLLEGE PLAY

The first all college play for this season has been selected. "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kessel is to be produced November 20 and 21. The tryouts are to be held next week. Watch for the day.

Intended to renew and strengthen the relationships between the alumni and undergraduates, the traditional meeting of the grads and students is one of the looked for events of the Central Washington College year. All organizations, the various classes and the dorms, unite in a co-operative effort to bid the returning alumni "welcome back."

Historically, the Homecoming is an old institution, known to all colleges. The first official Homecoming for Central Washington College was inaugurated in the early 1920's soon after the formation of the Washington Inter-Collegiate Athletic Conference, which at that time was comprised of three schools, Western at Bellingham, Central at Ellensburg and Eastern at Cheney.

Coming up through the years we find, in 1935, the Homecoming went something like this, "Following the tie-game with Bellingham, everyone gathered at the dining hall for the annual banquet and Dean Whitney again lived up to his reputation as the favorite afterdinner speaker. The banquet ended with the singing of school songs, then alums, students, and even the prof's adjourned to the new gym to finish the evening with dancing. The many grads vowed to return again in '36 for another such reunion."

Moving from 1935, we pause for a brief glimpse of the Homecoming of 1942. "Under the direction of Senior Tiny Flory and Bev Cox announced the appointment of the various officers to be in charge of the program during homecoming. They include:

Stunt Night—Chuck Zaffroni and Harry Flesher.

Parade—Jim Paulson and Pat Patillo.

Banquet—Jean Sampson and Joe Harris.

Dance—Marie Nelson and Virginia Colby.

Signs—Jim Brooks and Dave Marsh.

Loren Troxel, as general chairman, the festivities were carried out to perfection. Stunt night took on a new note of hilarity and the Frosh bonfire was bigger and better than ever."

Marjorie White, sophomore from Wapato, was crowned queen, with Helen Hill and Billie Earlywine selected as princesses. Winner in the various competitions were: Signs, Off-Campus Clubs; floats, Off-Campus Women; stunts, Dance Club."

Homecoming in 1947-48 is under the able directorship of co-chairmen Beverly Cox and "Tiny" Flory. The ensuing committees have been organized; Signs, Stunt Night, Parade, Dance, Banquet, and Frosh Bonfire. A tentative schedule, as announced by the Co-chairmen, is as follows:

Friday, Nov. 7—
Registration of Alumni 1:00-5:00 p. m.
Coronation of Queen, time unspecified.
Stunt Night, 8:00-10:30 p. m.

Saturday, Nov. 8—
Registration cont. 8:00-10:00 a. m.

CAMPUS CLUB NEW ADDITION TO COLLEGE

A new addition to the Central Washington College of Education is the Campus Club. The club was first opened on Sunday, September 21st, and has been going strong ever since.

The lounge was installed for the enjoyment of students and faculty on the campus. Here one can find refreshment and fun or just general relaxation. As one eminent professor on the campus put it, "I go there just to get away from it all." The furniture now in the hall is either donated or taken from the student lounge. However, new furniture including; cigarette stands, chairs and tables, davenport, and ping pong tables will soon arrive.

The advisory committee for the club is comprised of a joint membership of three faculty members and three students. Representing the faculty are Mr. R. E. Fisk, Mr. Kenneth Courson, Dr. E. E. Samuelson and for the students are Dwight Dart, Esther Sanders and Chuck Zaffaroni. This committee charts the course the club is to follow. So far only one real rule has been made concerning the club. No dancing will be allowed in the lounge section of the hall. Eating in this same section is frowned upon.

Club hours have been set as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday it will be open from ten a. m. to ten p. m. On Friday it opens from ten a. m. to twelve p. m. Saturday the club will open from twelve a. m. to twelve p. m. Also on Friday and Saturday it will close at the same time as the dormitories if there has been a dance or some other special event. Finally on Sunday it opens at two p. m. and closes at ten p. m.

As a side note it may be said that these night openings may have to be discontinued unless more experienced help is found to work nights.

These jobs pay time and a half for all hours after ten o'clock. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Swangler at the Campus Club.

All help for the club is recruited from the campus with the exception of Mrs. Swangler and Mrs. Major, manager and assistant manager respectively. Those now employed are: Tom Meyers, Charles Zaffaroni, Delmar Thompson, Virginia Johnston, Waldo King, Don Doran, Harvey Wood and Gloria Grace.

Mrs. Swangler is a well known person to many students on the campus. Before taking her present position she owned the College Fountain and worked in the college bake shop. Now her interest is to see that the students have a place where they feel they can some and relax.

Contrary to some opinions the club was not purchased by funds from the Student Union Memorial. Actually the students can thank two people for this new addition, namely the Federal Works Administration, who donated the hall and moved it there. The college paid for installation of the utilities and got the ball rolling for the opening of the club.

One little trouble has arisen. That

TWENTY TEACHERS JOIN CWC STAFF

Twenty new staff members joined the faculty at Central Washington College this fall making one of the largest additions in the history of the school, Pres. R. E. McConnell announced.

Although some of them are replacements for faculty members who have resigned, the majority occupy new staff positions created by the expansion of the college curriculum and the increased enrollment, Dr. McConnell said.

New teachers who joined the staff when the fall session opened are as follows:

Three new members joined the physical education department L. E. (Monty) Reynolds, who also taught summer session, is the new football and track coach. Shelton Kem entered as instructor in recreation and will serve as assistant football coach. Miss Shirley Nelson will be instructor of dance.

Under language and literature, Dr. Edward T. Calver is serving as assistant professor of English. Miss Jacqueline Martin is teaching French and Spanish, and Dr. Lyman Partridge, who joined the staff for the summer session, will resume as associate professor of speech.

Three new members entered the music staff. Mr. Herbert A. Bird is teaching violin and string instruments. Mr. A. Bert Christianson is director of band, and Miss Joan Swanson is teaching organ and public school music. Mr. Wayne S. Hertz, head of the music department, will return from a year's leave of absence this fall.

Dr. Robert S. Funderburk, assistant professor of social science, Arthur Hall, instructor in economics and Mrs. Alice Brown who teaches secretarial science, joined the social science department.

In the fine arts department, Mr. Neil A. Koch, who taught CWC during the spring quarter, has been appointed to instructor of art. Miss Barbara Adam is instructor in home economics. Bruce A. Robinson who taught at CWC during 1946 returned to the science department as assistant professor of mathematics.

Two members have joined the library staff. Miss Annette Walker will be children's librarian and Mrs. Isabel Tullis, who also served this summer, will continue as reference librarian. In the college elementary school, Miss Barbara Kohler has joined as first grade supervisor and Miss Gladys M. Hunter is fifth grade supervisor.

Dr. Charles W. Saale, chairman of the division of education and psychology, took over his post at CWC this summer.

is keeping the establishment clean. Students have not been as careful as they should be. Now this is the students club and it is up to you as the average student to help keep your club clean. So from now on let's put those pop bottles where they belong and watch where we throw those cigarette butts. This will reflect your type of personality to the campus.

SGA THEATER TICKET REQUIRED AT GAMES

At a recent meeting of the SGA council, it was decided that either SGA tickets or guest passes will be required at all SGA functions.

Wives of students may buy SGA tickets for three dollars in the business office. This will admit them to all sports and social activities.

Special passes can be obtained from either the dean of men or the dean of women's offices for former students and friends.

CIVIC THEATER GIVES PLAY NEXT WEEK

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," a melodrama in two acts by George M. Cohan, will be presented by the Ellensburg Civic Theater group in the Morgan Junior High school auditorium the evenings of October 15 and 16.

The play is under the direction of Dr. Lyman Partridge of the College speech department and Mrs. Afton Woods. It is being sponsored by the Ellensburg Pre-school P.-T. A.

Two CWC students have roles in the production. Tom Skiffington plays the part of Magee, the male lead, and Dan Ranniger plays the part of Bland. Mr. Bert Cross, publications, also has a minor supporting role.

Tickets for the play for either night may be secured from Miss Margaret Miller, College reference librarian. The price is 85 cents including tax.

DIDYA KNOW THAT?

The walk going from the Ad Building diagonally across the campus is known as hellowalk. It is the tradition that all persons meeting on this sidewalk will greet each other. Let's keep the tradition going.

Professor: Why don't you answer me?

Sophomore: I did, I shook my head.

Prof: You didn't expect me to hear it rattle way up here, did you?

VETS CHECKS DUE NOVEMBER

Veterans enrolled in schools or colleges should be prepared to finance themselves for forty-five to sixty days after registration before their first subsistence checks can be issued, VA announced.

The volume of detail work required to set up records, coupled with the anticipated heavy enrollment at Northwest schools and colleges, will cause some delay in issuance of first checks.

MIKE CHAPMAN, EDITOR

Social Season Well Planned

By Mary Hitchcock

In spite of the handicap of greater numbers of students and of a lack of facilities and space, the prospect of a very successful social season is bright.

"The best planned and organized SGA social program in the five years that I have been connected with the college" is the way Dean Hitchcock described the work of SGA officers charged with the responsibility of the social life of the campus.

Forrest Keyes, Vice President and Social Commissioner of SGA, and his assistant, Dale Troxel, together with Jim Adamson, SGA President, are largely responsible for the fine program which was presented to the Inter-Club Council when they met for the first time last Thursday night. The general plan includes two types of entertainment on each week end—a dance in the college gym and a card or game party in one of the dormitories. Each will be under the general supervision of SGA and will be a well planned event.

The Campus Club will be reserved for those who do not wish to join in the other two activities. The ALL-COLLEGE CALENDAR will be ready shortly after the next meeting of the Inter-Club Council on October 9. It will be posted in the glass case across from the Business Office.

All dates on the college calendar must clear through the office of the Dean of Women, who is the adviser of SGA social activities.

AFTER HOUR PARTY HELD IN SUE HALL

Shhh! Quiet! was the password at a recent after hour party held in room 263 at Sue. Jean Firman and Shirley Branton were the hosts to almost a dozen girls which consisted of: Phyllis Babcock, Catherine Sandstrom, Mary Lou Shaver, Muriel Hatfield, Glenna Warkley, Gloria Olney, Dorothy Brown, Zoe Starkweather, and Carole Romano.

Toast, jam, pickles, potato chips, tomatoes, apples and everything else that is guaranteed to give you a stomachache were served.

KAMOLA HALL IS SITE OF AWS TEA

The Associated Women Students held a lovely autumn tea from 4 to 5:30 p. m. on the afternoon of September 28, in the social rooms of Kamola hall.

The Egyptian club under the leadership of Mary Lou Shaver, president, presided over the serving of tea, coffee, and cookies, from an appointed table.

Entertainment for the social gathering was provided by the soft background music of Helen Olson and Lila Jean Thompson at the piano. A duet composed of Winnie Williams and Dick Hauser enhanced the pleasant atmosphere.

Serving in the receiving line were the following student and faculty members: Dr. and Mrs. R. E. McConnell, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Samuelson, Mrs. Annette Hitchcock, Miss Hazel Brain, Betty Svare, Jean Sampson, Nella Bledsoe, Betty Boyd, Mary Lou Shaver, June Hill, Betty Shelton, and Mary Blomberg.

Those invited but unable to attend were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fisk, Mary Clerf and Mabel Legg.

Hostess of the tea was Evelyn Cain. General Chairman was Mary Nelson assisted by food chairman, June Hill; invitations, Virginia Johnson; flowers and decoration, Mary Clerf; service chairman, Betty Svare, and entertainment, Betty Boyd.

Gratitude for cooperation was also extended to Lucille Sharp, Mary Blomberg, Betty Jo Partridge, Lorraine Knutsen, and Jean Backstrom.

The president of today is the postage stamp of tomorrow.

Kamola Hall Has Initiation

By MIKE CHAPMAN

"Watch out, they are upper class men," was the frenzied and worried cry of the freshmen girls at Kamola Hall last Thursday.

But really gals, we're not so bad are we? After all it wasn't as bad as it could have been. What am I talking about, why the initiation of course.

Just think, you're only freshmen once, and we're only seniors once. Besides we're not as young as we use to be, and it does our old hearts good to see a big group of ambitious girls crawling on their hands and knees, backwards down stairs. It's really quite remarkable how some people can put out fires with mouth full of water.

One thing I can't understand however, is the condition of your rooms upon returning from your pleasant duties held in the brickroom.

Here's hoping that all you sweet little freshmen didn't bruise your knees too much. However, that little matter may be remedied by wearing longer skirts (plug).

In closing I would like to say that we upper classmen want to give you kids a big pat on the back for being such good sports and taking it on the chin. Or should I say knees?

ALL GIRL MIXER HELD IN KAMOLA

Beneath two gaily colored spotlights in the Ad building gym, Wednesday evening, September 30, a large number of swaying CW students were at the first in this years series of weekly hour mixers sponsored by the SGA.

A SGA mixer is to be held every Wednesday night from 6:45 to 8 p. m.

However, one thing seemed to be lacking at this dance. The students lacked participation and enthusiasm. Fellows and girls alike seemed shy and bashful. The general opinion seemed to be to see more kids get out and have an hour of recreation and enjoyment.

DANCE CLUB MEETING

There will be a Dance club meeting Monday evening, October 13, at 7:00 in the Dance Studio (A-104). All former members and new students who are interested are urged to attend. All those who have had Dance I or its equivalent and are interested in creative

The Wesley Foundation, College group of the First Methodist Church extends its invitation to all Methodist students to meet each Sunday evening at 5:30 for a Dine-a-mite supper followed by a program which includes Vespers, panel discussion, and recreation.

Coming events for the year includes: outstanding speakers, attending stage plays at the Metropolitan theater in Seattle, visits to other Wesley clubs, and skating and seasonal parties throughout the year.

Every student is invited to attend these meetings.

COMPLAINTS

It has been noted that the students have become careless in their actions while using The Campus Club. It is the student's club and it should be treated as such. Picking up coke bottles, returning dishes to the cafeteria, and attempting to keep the club clean is the responsibility of each student.

The few ash trays that were furnished have either been stolen or broken. Seems odd that students would take their own conveniences from the club.

Most of the untidiness and lack of consideration for others in the club has not been realized, but such matters must cease to exist or the Campus Club cannot possibly be successfully run without unreasonable rules and regulations.

The Campus Club has received many complaints and gripes about the costs, administration, and hours of the club. It is to be considered that the club is new and has not yet been run long enough to iron out the difficulties. The student-faculty committee which deals with the problems of the club are doing their utmost to make it a better hangout for all students. Give them a chance to get it started!

ABOUT THE CRIER

We, the staff of the Campus Crier, are proud of this first edition for this year. We think we can put out a better newspaper than has ever been printed before.

To facilitate better news coverage we have elected editors for the various departments with a competent staff under them to cover their phase of college news.

Mike Chapman, society editor, and her staff will cover the society. Gerry Varner and his staff will have the responsibility to see that the Sports page is bigger and better than ever before. The Crier in previous years, has always lacked sufficient coverage of sports. This year, we plan to make a sports page that covers everything sufficiently. The newswriters, feature writers and staff are going all out to see that you receive the type of paper you want.

We cannot cover all the news by ourselves. It is expected of every student to submit news about their clubs and campus life that would be of interest to the majority of the students. With your help we can cover everything completely.

The Crier Staff is not infallible. We make mistakes, but we also want to rectify them. Any criticisms, suggestions, or compliments will be received and regarded. We want to know what you want in your paper.

Thank you,

REPORT FROM NSA

By Dale Troxel

The Campus Crier has asked me to make a report on the National Students Association convention which I attended as a delegate this fall in Madison, Wisconsin.

I was selected by the Student Government Association to attend the convention as a representative of CWC. The information and ideas that I picked up have been submitted to the council. The NSO is a great organization and will benefit the students in every way.

The NSO will compile reports from all campuses such as Student governments and social functions for references to be used in dealing with problems arising in various campuses.

The major issue of the convention was to draw up a constitution and discuss various issues and problems facing college students.

Write Preamble

Delegates from the majority of the college campuses approved the official name—United States National Student Organization—and adopted a number of points of the introductory paragraphs of the constitution at sessions held at the Wisconsin Union theater.

The preamble to the NSO constitution was written as follows:

"We the students of the United States of America, in order to secure and maintain academic freedom and the rights of students to stimulate the development of democratic self-government; foster better educational standards, methods and facilities; work for the improvement of the student social, cultural, and physical welfare:

"Recognizing the relationship of students to the school, the community, humanity and God, and the

JERROL'S COLUMN

Starting this week Jerrol's will sponsor a "letter to the editor" contest open to all students, faculty and wives of students. The letters to the Editor should pertain to subjects pertaining to the college, i. e. cooperation, social functions, or gripes, international or national affairs or any subject of general interest to the students.

The winner of each week's contest will be awarded five dollars in merchandise from Jerrol's store, which is located one block west of the college library.

All entries are to be submitted to the Campus Crier box in the library or to the Crier office in room A-401. All entries must be entered before Saturday morning of each week to be considered in that week's contest.

rights and responsibilities derived therefrom and

"Believing that these rights can be realized through the American democratic form of government therefore do establish the constitution for the United States National Students Association."

Other problems discussed included measures pertaining to all campuses. These include:

The full session went on record as favoring an increased subsistence payments to ex-GI college students and their families; a program of direct federal aid to outstanding high school graduates who haven't the money for further study; more liberal scholarship policies on the part of colleges and universities; and recommendations that schools "hold the line" against rising tuition costs.

Dr. Edward A. Fitzpatrick, president of Mt. Mary College in Milwaukee, said to the NSO convention in his oratory that collegians should be encouraged to tell school administrators just what they think of their professors and instructors. He pointed out that "education can go on without teachers."

"Dartmouth seniors for example made a frank report on the faculty, and the administration had the courage to print it and send it to other colleges."

Delegates of the NSO constitutional convention authorized its executive board to begin negotiations for affiliation with the International Union of Students on a provisional basis. The ISU, which was formed last summer at Prague, has been termed Soviet dominated and accenting far-left political theories. Much discussion and writing as to the benefits of the NSO could obtain through a voice in this global organization. A vote will be taken next year regarding the affiliation.

All students were urged to enter politics by Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

"Politics in a democracy ought to be our highest social art; it ought to draw to it the very best talent that we can provide. Nothing short of this will do in this age before us," said Dr. Rainey. "... Students must be free to learn and scholars free to teach."

The NSO will work for the "eventual elimination of all forms of discriminatory educational systems" and encourage "wide investigation and discussion" of the problems of racial barriers and white-Negro segregation in the classrooms of America.

I think in writing this article I have covered all the major issues of the assembly.

Larry Lindberg ---Cheerleader

With the opening of college all eyes are watching for the leaders and outstanding men and women during the freshman and transfers registration period. There is one man especially who deserves much credit for his constant work in the pep department of CWC, who is our newly elected yell king, Larry Lindberg from Bremerton. Some of his doings were made known Friday night, the night of the CWC vs. WWC football game. The "pick up rally" was under his supervision, as well as getting all the students behind the effort of boosting our athletic department to the top of the activity calendar.

His home was formerly in Seattle, where he attended Lincoln high school. He got off to an early start in this pep business by being elected yell duke during his freshman year and for the following three years he was the yell king for Lincoln high school.

After he received his high school diploma, he went into the Army air corps, and took his training as a cadet at West Texas State, where he was yell king for one year.

Receiving his discharge from the Army Air Corps he enrolled at the University of Washington, and was elected a yell duke. Upon completion of his first year of college, he transferred to Olympic Junior College at Bremerton, and was voted in as yell king for the year. He also organized the junior college pep club, and became president, and in charge of all rallies and stunts.

Lindberg holds a commercial pilots license which he earned while piloting B-25s in the air corps. He is a ski and ice skating enthusiast also.

Keep your eyes on this man, as you will see and hear a lot of him in the future that will give you admiration for him.

In Australia kangaroos replaced oxen, deer and sheep as grazing animals.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

You may not add a course after October 8?

You may reserve a class room for a club meeting by calling at the Registrar's office for the proper card. This must be done by 4 p. m. on the Monday of the week for which the room is wanted.

Anyone interested in learning to operate movie projectors see Chuck Zaffaroni or meet in M102 Thursday at 3 p. m.

All veterans who receive notices in their mail boxes to report to the Dean of Men be sure and do so as it may pertain to your papers. Your subsistence cannot be authorized by the VA until complete papers have been mailed from this office.

HOLD INTRAMURAL MEET

All intramural athletic managers are requested to attend a meeting in Coach Leo Nicholson's office next Monday at 4:30 p. m.

All dormitories, clubs, and organizations are urged to send a representative.

The yell leaders of Central Washington wish to thank all the members of the student body for all the pep and enthusiasm shown for the game last Friday when we played Western Washington. We indeed are a grateful yell team, and thank every one of you from the bottom of our hearts. We also wish to thank the Northern Pacific Railroad, Ellensburg Radio Station, Ellensburg Police Department, and all other businesses and concerns for their publicity, assistance and contributions.

SAFETIES COST WILDCATS GAME AGAINST BELLINGHAM

AL MILLER

Central Washington's Wildcats in their first Winco Title defense succumbed 4-0 last Friday night to a hard-driving and tricky passing Viking team from Western Washington College. The Cats played inspired defensive ball, stopping no less than seven Viking drives.

Hal Niemeyer kicked off for the red and black clad Wildcats. His first kick was called back after going out of bounds on the 25 yard line. The second boot traveled to Western's 15 yard line and was run back 10 yards to the 25. The Vikings running from a "T" formation had a deceptive offense, but even with the use of two varsity teams Bellingham failed to make any appreciable gains the first quarter.

Central stuck to a ground game the first period, bucking through the Blue and White forward wall for small gains. The Wildcats were in possession of the ball on the Western 47 as the first quarter ended.

Continuing their driving attack in the second quarter, the Central eleven powered down to the Viking 25 yard line before the attack was stopped. Trying desperately to get points the Wildcats attempted a place kick from the Western thirty-five, but the seemingly perfect placement dropped short of the goal posts and Western took the ball out on their own twenty. Alternating passing and running the Vikings went from the Western 20 to the Central 45. The gun terminated the second quarter at that point and the first half ended 0 to 0.

Western made four first downs to the Wildcats three. Central attempted just one pass which was completed. The Vikings really threw the ball around with 3 completions out of 9 tries for a total of 53 yards.

Western Washington kicked off to start the second half, Victor taking the ball near the Central goal returned it upfield to the thirty yard line of the Cats. Frank Svoboda, Central fullback, boomed between left tackle and end for a first down. The next play a deceptive bucket pass-lateral circled left end and moved the ball to the Viking thirty. Central seemed touchdown bound, but on the same type pass-lateral play around the opposite end on the next play the ball got out of hand and Western recovered. From that moment on the Red and Black were mostly on the defensive as Western drove time and time again for a touchdown but could not overcome the inspired goal line stands of the fighting Central Wildcats line and backs. Bob Osgood, l. g.; Ray Merk, c.; and Don Bort, r. g.; stopped the Viking center plunges. Hake, l. t.; Bud Kapral, l. e.; Thompson, r. t.; and McCullough, r. e., dug in halting the Western backs and causing them to take to the air in a T. D. try. Here the stands got a real thrill as a Viking pass sailed wild and fullback Svoboda intercepting, picked up interference and moved down through a broken field. He outran the Viking backs and went over for a touchdown. It was the longest run of the day, but a penalty occurred on the play and the score was nullified. Central intercepted again on the next play. A bad pass from the center was recovered in the Cats end zone by Bartlett, who was tackled before he could run the ball out and the Vikings had a safety giving them a 2-0 lead.

Western spent the fourth quarter in the Wildcat's territory. One drive was stopped on the Cats' 3 yard line. Central getting the ball on downs had Bartlett kick. The Blue forward wall charging through hurried the kicker and the ball carried only a short distance to the thirty yard line of Central. The Vik's staged another drive that was abruptly ended when Norland King, left guard of the Cats intercepted. Central attempting to put the ball out of the danger zone tried another punt and Bartlett's kick was blocked as the Blue line swarmed into the Red and White backfield. Bounding back into the end zone, the ball went out of play giving Western an automatic safety and a final two points making the score at the end of the game 4-0 against Central's Wildcats.

While Western's backfield was an important factor in winning, the big blue line, which averaged 200 pounds per man seemed the margin of victory.

Total statistics are as follows: The Viks had 13 first downs to five for Central—298 yards total yardage against 152 for Central. The visitors made 102 yards on the ground—net—against 88 for the Cats, and outpassed them by a wide margin. Central completed only one pass for 11 yards and Western completed six in seventeen for 81 yards with two intercepted.

The margin was heaviest in the second half; nine first downs for Western, two for Central.

SEEN AROUND THE TRACK

Those of you that are around the track in the evening about 5 p. m. have undoubtedly noticed a tall, long legged lad with a crew cut running from 3 to 5 miles every night of the week. This boy has his heart set on breaking the two mile Winco record this spring.

In order to do this a great deal of effort and training is in store for him. If self-confidence has anything to do with his breaking this record, it's in the bag.

Keep working and training and we'll see you break that record on Tomlinson field this spring, Glenn Baker.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Did Dale "Trox" Troxel ever get his shoes back?

Idaho Saturday Cats To Play

The CWC Wildcats are polishing up on their offense this week in preparation for Saturday night's game against the strong Idaho State (Lewiston) team.

The Lewistonites, who use the "T" formation, are minus Del Owens, their star player from last year who signed to play professional baseball. However, the rest of the veterans are back and this should prove to be one of Central's toughest foes on the gridiron this season.

Dale Krueger and Don Doran have been brought up from the junior varsity team to assist in the Central passing attack.

A freshman fullback from Seattle, Kreuger made all-conference in the Puget Sound League in high school. Doran, left halfback, made all-city at Queen Anne in Seattle.

Six varsity members have minor injuries: Svoboda, Carmody, Bonjorni, Sherwood, Merk and Vanelli. All of these men should be able to see some action in this week's game.

Barring injuries, here is the tentative starting line-up for the Wildcats:

Bud Kapral	LE
Leo Hake	LT
Bob Osgood	LG
Ray Merk	C
Dom Bort	RG
Bob Thompson	RT
Bob McCullough	RE
Russ Victor	QB
Ed Bartlett	LH

CAMPUS CLUB NEW ADDITION TO COLLEGE

A new addition to the Central Washington College of Education is the Campus Club. The club was first opened on Sunday, September 21st, and has been going strong ever since.

The lounge was installed for the enjoyment of students and faculty on the campus. Here one can find refreshment and fun or just general relaxation. As one eminent professor on the campus put it, "I go there just to get away from it all." The furniture now in the hall is either donated or taken from the student lounge. However, new furniture including; cigarette stands, chairs and tables, davenport, and ping pong tables will soon arrive.

The advisory committee for the club is comprised of a joint membership of three faculty members and three students. Representing the faculty are Mr. R. E. Fisk, Mr. Kenneth Courson, Dr. E. E. Samuelson and for the students are Dwight Dart, Esther Sanders and Chuck Zaffaroni. This committee charts the course the club is to follow. So far only one real rule has been made concerning the club. No dancing will be allowed in the lounge section of the hall. Eating in this same section is frowned upon.

Club hours have been set as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday it will be open from ten a. m. to ten p. m. On Friday it opens from ten a. m. to twelve p. m. Saturday the club will open from twelve a. m. to twelve p. m. Also on Friday and Saturday it will close at the same time as the dormitories if there has been a dance or some other special event. Finally on Sunday it opens at two p. m. and closes at ten p. m.

As a side note it may be said that these night openings may have to be discontinued unless more experienced help is found to work nights.

These jobs pay time and a half for all hours after ten o'clock. Any one interested should contact Mrs. Swangler at the Campus Club.

All help for the club is recruited from the campus with the exception of Mrs. Swangler and Mrs. Major, manager and assistant manager respectively. Those now employed are: Tom Meyers, Charles Zaffaroni, Delmar Thompson, Virginia Johnston, Waldo King, Don Doran, Harvey Wood and Gloria Grace.

Mrs. Swangler is a well known person to many students on the campus. Before taking her present position she owned the College Fountain and worked in the college bake shop. Now her interest is to see that the students have a place where they feel they can come and relax.

Contrary to some opinions the club was not purchased by funds from the Student Union Memorial. Actually the students can thank two people for this new addition, namely the Federal Works Administration, who donated the hall and moved it there. The college paid for installation of the utilities and got the ball rolling for the opening of the club.

One little trouble has arisen. That

TWENTY TEACHERS JOIN CWC STAFF

Twenty new staff members joined the faculty at Central Washington College this fall making one of the largest additions in the history of the school, Pres. R. E. McConnell announced.

Although some of them are replacements for faculty members who have resigned, the majority occupy new staff positions created by the expansion of the college curriculum and the increased enrollment, Dr. McConnell said.

New teachers who joined the staff when the fall session opened are as follows:

Three new members joined the physical education department L. E. (Monty) Reynolds, who also taught summer session, is the new football and track coach. Shelton Kem entered as instructor in recreation and will serve as assistant football coach. Miss Shirley Nelson will be instructor of dance.

Under language and literature, Dr. Edward T. Calver is serving as assistant professor of English. Miss Jacqueline Martin is teaching French and Spanish, and Dr. Lyman Partridge, who joined the staff for the summer session, will resume as associate professor of speech.

Three new members entered the music staff. Mr. Herbert A. Bird is teaching violin and string instruments. Mr. A. Bert Christianson is director of band, and Miss Joan Swanson is teaching organ and public school music. Mr. Wayne S. Hertz, head of the music department, will return from a year's leave of absence this fall.

Dr. Robert S. Funderburk, assistant professor of social science, Arthur Hall, instructor in economics and Mrs. Alice Brown who teaches secretarial science, joined the social science department.

In the fine arts department, Mr. Neil A. Koch, who taught CWC during the spring quarter, has been appointed to instructor of art. Miss Barbara Adam is instructor in home economics. Bruce A. Robinson who taught at CWC during 1946 returned to the science department as assistant professor of mathematics.

Two members have joined the library staff. Miss Annette Walker will be children's librarian and Mrs. Isabel Tullis, who also served this summer, will continue as reference librarian. In the college elementary school, Miss Barbara Kohler has joined as first grade supervisor and Miss Gladys M. Hunter is fifth grade supervisor.

Dr. Charles W. Saale, chairman of the division of education and psychology, took over his post at CWC this summer.

is keeping the establishment clean. Students have not been as careful as they should be. Now this is the students club and it is up to you as the average student to help keep your club clean. So from now on let's put those pop bottles where they belong and watch where we throw those cigarette butts. This will reflect your type of personality to the campus.

SGA THEATER TICKET REQUIRED AT GAMES

At a recent meeting of the SGA council, it was decided that either SGA tickets or guest passes will be required at all SGA functions.

Wives of students may buy SGA tickets for three dollars in the business office. This will admit them to all sports and social activities.

Special passes can be obtained from either the dean of men or the dean of women's offices for former students and friends.

CIVIC THEATER GIVES PLAY NEXT WEEK

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," a melodrama in two acts by George M. Cohan, will be presented by the Ellensburg Civic Theater group in the Morgan Junior High school auditorium the evenings of October 15 and 16.

The play is under the direction of Dr. Lyman Partridge of the College speech department and Mrs. Afton Woods. It is being sponsored by the Ellensburg Pre-school P.-T. A.

Two CWC students have roles in the production. Tom Skiffington plays the part of Magee, the male lead, and Dan Ranniger plays the part of Bland. Mr. Bert Cross, publications, also has a minor supporting role.

Tickets for the play for either night may be secured from Miss Margaret Miller, College reference librarian. The price is 85 cents including tax.

DIDYA KNOW THAT?

The walk going from the Ad Building diagonally across the campus is known as hellowalk. It is the tradition that all persons meeting on this sidewalk will greet each other. Let's keep the tradition going.

Professor: Why don't you answer me?

Sophomore: I did, I shook my head.

Prof: You didn't expect me to hear it rattle way up here, did you?

VETS CHECKS DUE NOVEMBER

Veterans enrolled in schools or colleges should be prepared to finance themselves for forty-five to sixty days after registration before their first subsistence checks can be issued, VA announced.

The volume of detail work required to set up records, coupled with the anticipated heavy enrollment at Northwest schools and colleges, will cause some delay in issuance of first checks.

CENTRAL HAS EDGE OVER WESTERN IN PAST ENCOUNTERS

Although Central lost to the Western Washington team last week, they still maintain a 13 to 9 edge over the Vikings.

The Wildcats started their rivalry with the Bellingham team in 1922 by defeating them by a score of 19 to 0 in the first meeting of these two teams on the gridiron. Since then Central has taken 13 of the 24 games played, they were defeated 9 times, and there were 2 tie games.

Since the Winko Conference was organized in 1938 Central has only won three while dropping five and tying one against the Vikings.

EWC BEATS WHITWORTH

The Eastern Washington Savages finally pushed over a touchdown in the last quarter to defeat Whitworth in their first Winko Conference game of the season.

The Savages recovered a Whitworth fumble on the 10 yard line and Halfback Don Cobb tossed a six-yard pass to Adrian Beamer for the lone tally. They failed to convert and the game ended 6 to 0.

AFTER GAME MIXER HELD IN OLD GYM

After a heart breaking game against Western college the SGA mixer held on October 3 helped cheer up the disheartened student body. It may be said that most everyone had a crowded but good time.

It is hoped by all concerned that there will not be such a large stag line at the next mixer.

WILDCAT JAYVEES K. O. YAKIMA VARSITY

Fourth quarter touchdown wins for Cats!

The sparkling squad of Central Washington College Jayvees trying for places on the Wildcats Varsity squad, edged a large fighting Yakima Junior College eleven, 6-0, by scoring in the final minutes of the last quarter Saturday night on the Rodeo Field.

Quarterback Harvey Wood from Darrington High School slipped through on a quarterback sneak from the 15 yard line to score for the Wildcats. Up until that point of the nothing-to-nothing game both teams battled on an even keel all the way. Although the Yakima eleven outweighed our Wildcats by a large margin, our boys evened this margin by their speedy running and excellent blocking throughout the game.

The Cats reserves had plenty of hustle and stamina which aided a great deal in the victory.

Harold Larson, left end for the Cats showed promising talent by his zip and ability in spilling many of the opposing ball carriers.

Coach Arnie Faust expects to schedule five or six games for the Jayvees with other Junior colleges

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

The gym is open each day from 3 to 5 p. m. for the purpose of practicing basketball, Coach Leo Nicholson announced this week.

Any student may turn out twice a week at his own convenience during these hours.

Then there's the joke about the traveling salesman who married the farmer's daughter because he was in love with her.

All students watch your mail boxes and bulletin boards for your appointment with the photographers. Individual portraits of students will be taken at Goehner's Studio beginning this week. A payment of one dollar will be required when your photo is taken. Men are requested to wear coats and ties. When you receive your appointment go to the studio at your earliest vacant period, the lines will be longest from 4 to 5 p. m.
